

ANNEX 8.2.

Quiz about Disinformation

Questions

Question 1

What is “Fake News”?

- A term used to denominate false information shared mainly on social media.
- A term used to denominate true information shared mainly on social media.

Question 2

Clickbait is a form of misleading advertising on the Internet that has the central goal of generating clicks, generating attention, and increasing your online exposure. Clickbait has the exact same definition as Fake News.

- True
- False

ENDING

Question 3

When I see information on the internet that I suspect is false I should...
(Selects only one option - may contain one or more correct options)

- Consult someone to express their opinion on it.
- Denounce the information to the creator of the website if it is incorrect.
- Spread the information in friend groups.

Question 4

Mark one of the main signs to find out that the news is fake.

- The URL and the name of the website seem off.
- The information seems coherent and its information is validated in other trustworthy websites.
- There's grammar and spelling mistakes.
- Never checking the publishing date of the information.

Question 5

How do Fake News spread? Choose the right answer.

- Through articles or websites
- Through photos, videos, messages, and memes
- Through social media
- All of the above

Question 6

What kind of information is most likely to be true?

- Information shared by a famous Youtuber.
- Information shared by an influencer based on a social media.
- Information shared by a news company.

Question 7

Why are Fake News created?

- To influence viewers and visitors of a website
- To provide revenue for the creator of the fake news
- All of the above

Question 8

Does this picture represent any type of Fake News?

- Yes
- No

Question 9

Editing a photo or video can lead people to believe false information.

- True
- False

Question 10

What is the meaning of the word advertisement?

- Information that influences people to buy some product, for example.
- Fake News created by someone.
- A newspaper selling site.

ENDING

Solutions

Question 1

- A term used to denominate false information shared mainly on social media.

Question 2

- False

Question 3

- Consult someone to express their opinion on it.
- Denounce the information to the creator of the website if it is incorrect.

Question 4

- The URL and the name of the website seem off.
- There's grammar and spelling mistakes.

Question 5

- All of the above

Question 6

- Information shared by a news company.

Question 7

- All of the above

Question 8

- Yes

Question 9

- True

Question 10

- Information that influences people to buy some product, for example.